Tightening World Grain Supplies Push Prices to Decade-High Levels

Short crops around the world this year, combined with strengthening demand, are shrinking global grain stocks and causing prices to soar to the highest levels in a decade. Wheat prices have climbed as exportable supplies are sharply down in key Northern Hemisphere exporters such as the United States, Black Sea region, and the European Union. This tightness has been exacerbated by a severe crop shortfall in Australia and strong import demand in India.

Surging corn prices are being driven by a smaller U.S. crop and strong demand for use in ethanol and exports. Barley prices have also jumped to decade highs as a result of sharply lower exportable supplies in Australia--the largest exporter the past 3 years--as well as strengthening feed demand in light of poor wheat crops. Sorghum prices are also strong as U.S. production has fallen to the lowest level in 60 years, and this is curtailing export availability.

Circular Modifications:

FAS released a new version of PSD Online on August 31, 2006. It retains all of the ease-of-use and functionality of the current version, while incorporating some new features. It is available on the FAS website (<http://www.fas.usda.gov/psdonline/>).

The new system allowed us to overhaul this Circular so readers may have noticed a new look during the past few months. This revised format will be "in transition" over the next several months, as we make use of the expanded capabilities of the new PSD system. The circular will also now be released earlier at noon.

Your comments on the new Circular will be welcome and can be sent to gfd@usda.gov. We thank you in advance for your patience over the next few months.

WHEAT: WORLD MARKETS AND TRADE

MONTHLY HIGHLIGHTS:

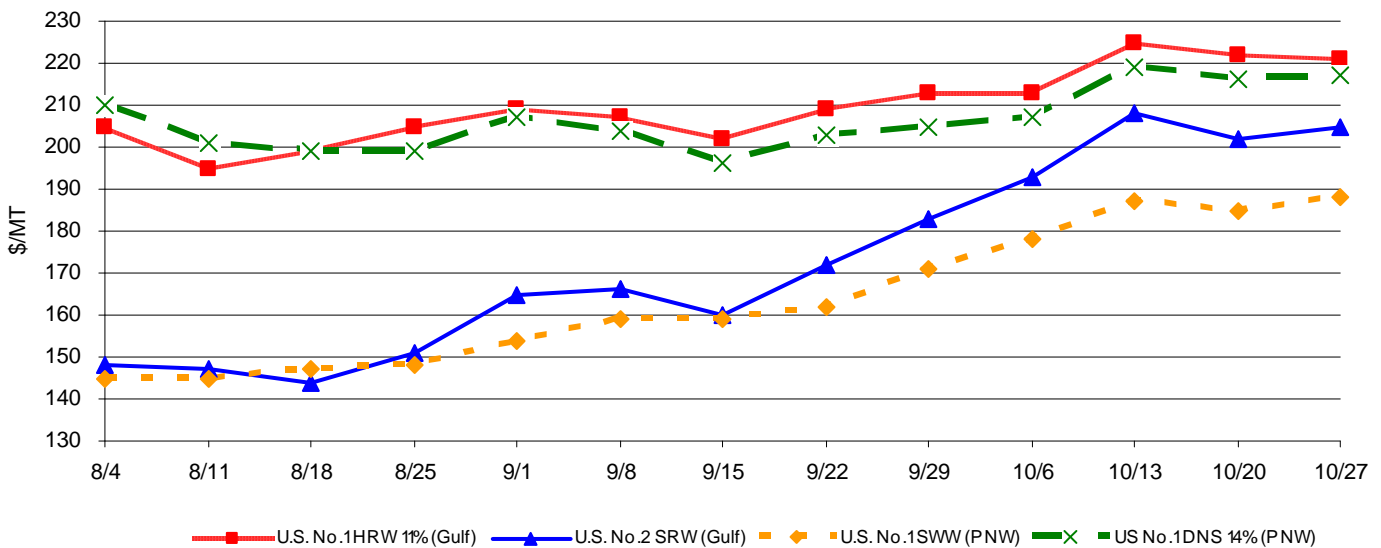

Brazil Expected To Be Largest Importer in 2006/07: Brazil is expected to surpass Egypt and the European Union this year and return as the world's largest import market for the first time since 2000/01. Production has fallen to only half of last year's level as the crop has been severely hit by a combination of drought and frosts at the end of August and beginning of September. This crop shortfall will lead to higher import demand, and could result in greater wheat needing to be sourced from countries outside South America. Last year 91 percent of Brazilian imports were sourced from Argentina, and 7 percent from Paraguay.

PRICES:

Domestic: For October, wheat prices climbed for all classes, and continued to set 10-year highs. The main catalyst for higher prices has been severe drought in Australia, which has slashed production by more than half and is exacerbating already tight global exportable supplies. For the month, Soft Red Winter (SRW) prices rose $22 per ton, Soft White (SWS) prices rose $17, Hard Red Winter (HRW) rose $12, and Hard Red Spring (HRS) prices rose $8.

U.S. Weekly FOB Export Bids

TRADE CHANGES IN 2006/2007

Selected Exporters

- Australia is down 1.0 million tons to 12.0 million as the drought-ravaged crop continues to shrink. Additionally, poor pasture conditions are expected to result in greater wheat feeding, further reducing supplies available for export.
- Russia is up 1.0 million tons to 8.5 million as production is raised and export prices remain very attractive.
- Ukraine is down 500,000 tons to 3.5 million as government export policies have reduced shipments.
- China is up 500,000 tons to 2.5 million on strong sales of feed-quality wheat to Asian markets.
- Romania is up 150,000 tons to 400,000 as the crop estimate is raised and greater exports are expected to the EU.

Selected Importers

- Brazil is up 300,000 tons to 7.3 million on sharply lower production.
- Iraq is down 500,000 tons to 3.5 million on slow purchases to date.
- Nigeria is down 300,000 tons to 3.6 million. The combination of high wheat prices and lower prices of other local staples (due to bumper harvests) are curtailing wheat consumption growth this year.

RICE: WORLD MARKETS AND TRADE

PRICES:

International: Export prices in Thailand weaken under pressure from the Government's lower announced intervention prices and plans to sell off 3.7 million tons of intervention stocks. Conversely, Viet 5% is currently quoted at $287 per ton, FOB, up $16 due to tight supplies.

Domestic: U.S. #2/4 long grain milled rice is up slightly from last month at $434 per ton, FOB. The spread between comparable qualities of Thai and U.S. rice is $140 per ton compared to $33 per ton this time last year. The last time U.S. prices were at $434 was in June of 1998. The spread then was $102. U.S. medium grain prices remain unchanged with quotes at $525 per ton, FOB.

COARSE GRAINS: WORLD MARKETS AND TRADE

PRICES:

Domestic: October export bids for #2 yellow corn soared by over $20 per ton to $142, the highest in over 10 years. The escalation results from expanding domestic demand, strong exports, and high wheat prices.

TRADE CHANGES IN 2006/2007

Selected Exporters

- United States corn is down 1.5 million tons to 55.5 million due to reduced production and high prices.
- Australia barley is lowered 300,000 tons to 2.7 million as production is expected to fall to less than half last year's level.
- Brazil corn is raised 1.0 million tons this month to 3.0 million because of high international prices and a reduction in the U.S. crop.
- Russia barley is raised 300,000 tons to 2.5 million on higher production and less competition from Ukraine.
- Ukraine barley is lowered 500,000 tons to 4.7 million as government export policy has reduced shipments in recent months.

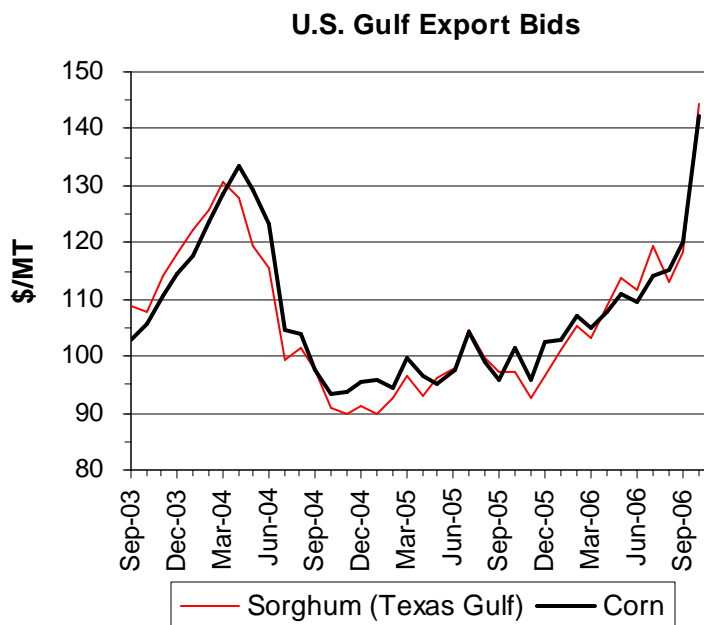

Selected Importers

- South Korea corn is down 400,000 tons to 8.5 million based on likely shifts to less expensive imported feedstuffs..

TRADE CHANGES IN 2005/2006

Selected Exporters

- United States corn is down 300,000 tons to 56.2 million based on near-final trade data.
- Argentina corn is up 500,000 tons to 10.5 given a surge in late-season trade.

- Paraguay corn is raised nearly 1 million tons to a record 1.3 million based on final trade data. The increase is mostly late-season trade with Brazil (with corn imports there raised 500,000 tons to 950,000, a 6-year high).
 - Final corn trade data is used to adjust exporters Brazil, China, South Africa, and Thailand; and importers China, Japan, South Africa, South Korea, and Thailand.

OTHER NOTES

Stocks: Unless otherwise stated, stock data are based on an aggregate of differing local marketing years and should not be construed as representing world stock levels at a fixed point in time.

Consumption: World totals for consumption reflect total utilization, including food, seed, industrial, feed, and waste; as well as differences in marketing year imports and marketing year exports. Consumption statistics for regions and individual countries, however, reflect food, seed, industrial, feed, and waste only.

EU Consolidation: The trade figures for the EU-25 for the years 1999/00 through 2002/03 are inflated by the two-way trade between the two groups (EU-15 and acceding 10). Over the past 6 years, this “intra-trade” has averaged about 700,000 tons for wheat, 350,000 tons each for corn and barley, and 150,000 tons for rye. The trade figures also include intra-trade between members of the acceding 10. From 2003/04 onward, all intra-trade has been removed.

Statistics: (1) Wheat trade statistics include wheat, flour, and selected products on a grain equivalent basis. (2) Rice trade statistics include rough, brown, milled, and broken on a milled equivalent basis. (3) Coarse grains statistics include corn, barley, sorghum, oats, rye, millet, and mixed grains but exclude trade in barley malt, millet, and mixed grains.

Unaccounted: This term includes grain in transit, reporting discrepancies in some countries, and trade to countries outside the USDA database.
