

Oilseeds: World Markets and Trade

China's Soybean Meal and Oil Prices Tumble on Ample Supplies

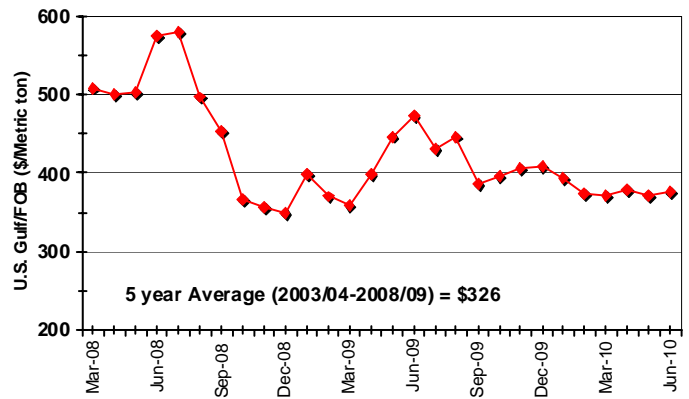

China's soybean meal and oil prices tumbled as soybean processors, in a rush to capitalize on a spike in oil prices, flooded the market with soybean meal and oil. The additional oil was easily absorbed by the market given restrictions on Argentine imports. However, the excess meal accumulated leading to steep price discounts as processors attempted to move these perishable supplies. This has negatively impacted crush margins and forced soybean processors to temporarily scale back operations and ultimately, demand for soybeans. Once the current oversupply of meal is reduced and product prices strengthen, processors are expected to resume the normally quick crushing pace leading to another year of record soybean imports.

PRICES

U.S. soybean export bids, FOB Gulf, in June averaged $376 per ton, Virtually unchanged over the past four months. Tight old crop supplies continue to support export prices.

As of the week-ending June 24, 2010, U.S. soybean sales commitments (outstanding sales plus accumulated exports) to China totaled 22.3 million tons, compared to 18.6 million a year ago. Total commitments to the world amounted to 39.3 million tons compared to 34.0 million for the same period last year.

U.S. Gulf Soybean Export Bids

TRADE CHANGES IN 2009/110

- Argentina's soybean exports are up 2.0 million tons to 9.5 million, partially offsetting a 1.0 million ton decline in Brazil as China buyers increasingly turn to less expensive Argentine origin.
- China's soybean imports are 1.0 million tons higher at 48.0 million due to stronger than expected purchases from Argentina.

TRADE CHANGES IN 2010/11

- US soybean exports are up 0.6 million tons to 37.3 million in response to strong overseas' demand, mainly from China.
- China's soybean imports are boosted 1.0 million tons to a record 50.0 million due to strong crush demand augmented by reduced rapeseed imports.
- China's rapeseed imports are cut 0.7 million tons to 1.3 million in response to reduced availability, mainly in Canada.
- Canada's rapeseed exports are down 1.2 million tons to 5.5 million due to reduced exportable supplies.
- Mexico's rapeseed imports are reduced 0.3 million tons to 1.2 million in response to reduced exports from Canada.
